Happy Father's Day

Congratulations to all fathers today. It is a special day that reminds all of us the role played by parents in the passing on of the Christian faith. The primary vocation of fatherhood is to lead the family. We need strong fathers to provide leadership in shepherding their families in the life of faith. Fathers are an important witness for their children. Our children listen to everything and they watch everything. As soon as parents say one thing and do the opposite, children notice. It is important for fathers and mothers to be authentic witnesses to the Gospel. We thank all fathers who have been faithful in that vocation. We remember all those who have gone before us.

OUR JOURNEY WITH OUR BLESSED MOTHER

Any questions call 419-396-7107 or look us up at olcshrine.com.

LYNN'S MUSIC NOTES

Our Communion hymn is "All Who Hunger." Bob Moore wrote the music. Moore is a multifaceted musician composing over 200 choral and instrumental works. He composes not only sacred music, but music for ensembles, bands and orchestras as well. The text was written by Sylvia Dunstan. Dunstan wrote the text while on vacation in South Carolina. She was working out the text while wandering up and down the beach and kept singing "Holy Manna." I guess this is proof that vacations, especially at the beach, help us be more creative! Dunstan died from liver cancer in 1993 at the age of 38, but what a legacy she left using the gifts God gave her!
